

Chartered Institute of Housing
Asian Pacific Branch
英國特許房屋經理學會亞太分會

Asian Institute of Built Environment

BA (Hons) Housing Studies (Reg. No. 252355)

in association with Leeds Beckett University, UK

Introduction to the Course

The BA (Hons) Housing Studies (top-up) is a part-time course addressing both academic and practitioner perspectives. It is in response to an increased demand for courses that meet the needs of practitioners with critical knowledges of a broader array of interlinked professional disciplines and the skills necessary to practice in them. Graduates can work for housing organisations and facilities and property management enterprises.

Housing is a professional discipline that is increasingly influential on policy aimed at developing sustainable communities. This course is for prospective students who work in housing organisations either in a professional or voluntary capacity, wanting to progress as a housing professional, develop understanding of housing and public policy, make a contribution to communities or want to develop your academic skills.

Course Features

- 18 months part-time top-up degree course delivered over 4 consecutive semesters
- Articulation of Foundation Degree of Arts in Housing (FdA Housing)
- All assessments are completed by producing a reflective portfolio and no examinations are required
- All assessments are set by Leeds Beckett University who assure the quality standards
- The course is closely linked with Chartered Institution of Housing (CIH). Students will be guided to complete the PER accordingly.
- Graduates of this course shall have met the academic requirement for either Ordinary or Fellow Membership of Greater China Institute of Property Management (GCIPM).

